CORPUS CHRISTI AND THE CONVERT WHO NEVER CONVERTED

G.K. Chesterton's Orthodoxy played an important part in my rediscovering the Catholic Faith. It is a book that is fanciful, intellectually engaging, and profoundly joyful! I love Chesterton's proposed "romance" about an English yachtsman who miscalculated his course and, instead of finding a new, exotic island in the South Seas, actually "discovers" England!

Chesterton admitted playfully, "I am that man in the yacht. I discovered England." Of course, what he was really admitting was that "with utmost daring (he had) discovered what had been discovered before" — Christian Orthodoxy. In that same sense, I join Chesterton in saying, "I discovered England" too!

My "apologia pro vita sua" begins with the line: "It all began with Vatican II"... A newfound interest in religion made Theology interesting, and Liturgy in particular. The possibilities of renewing and reforming the Church were very exciting. Without being too original, I saw myself as a "radical" — one who dared to return to the roots of belief and worship. I was impatient with the gaudy, baroque trappings of "Italianate" Catholicism. The multiplicity of devotions struck me as an overcrowded mantelpiece obscuring the real treasure of the Church. In my view, "It was time to cleanse the Temple." I felt very "prophetic" and sure of myself at 20!

In my senior year of college, I opted for an elective on Ecumenism. It was taught by a remarkable Jesuit, Fr. David Bowman. Fr. Bowman gave us an unusual assignment: go out to a particular religious group, read about them, attend their services, bring a speaker back to class, and do a major paper on the group. With this challenge there was also a caveat: know what the Church's guidelines are and do not receive Communion in a non-Catholic Christian Community.

My choice was to explore "Anglo-Catholicism." Anglo-Catholics were more than "High Church" Anglicans. They had been inspired by the Oxford Movement to return the theology of the Fathers of the Church and a "Catholic" interpretation of the Reformation. But Anglo-Catholics were most concerned with a restoration of "Catholic" worship. That included Sunday Mass, Confession, a full range of sacramentals and devotions. I was "hooked."

I shall never forget the day I first visited the Episcopal Church of the Atonement near Loyola University. What greeted me in the narthex was a tastefully framed parchment that reminded all who entered:

*The Blessed Sacrament is reserved in this Church.
Please show reverence for the Real Presence.*

Upon entering the Church, the "feeling" was totally "Catholic." There was a red sanctuary lamp, a tabernacle and six very tall High Mass candles on the altar. That was the beginning of my fascination with what seemed a "mirror reflection" of Roman Catholicism or, as Anglicans often put it, "Catholicism with a difference."

In my year-long association with Anglo-Catholics, something was beginning to change my "radical," vision. I looked carefully at this "mirror reflection" of Catholicism. As I relished the chant, polyphony, and hymns, I decided to return to the religious' practices I had all but given up. The strange thing was that what some laughingly referred to as "Anglican Fever" was actually a gradual "defrosting" of my own Roman Catholicism.

The real turning point for me was my first Corpus Christi Procession and Benediction. Yes, it was in an Episcopal Church — St. Luke's in Evanston. What an awesome and beautiful celebration! I remember writing a friend at St. Meinrad Archabbey a four page descriptive letter about my experience. In the letter, it was obvious that Anglo-Catholicism had brought me back to a deep appreciation of the Eucharist, the Blessed Virgin, and the whole Catholic tradition of ritual and devotion.

Shortly after Corpus Christi, 1964, I discerned a vocation to the priesthood. In the upheaval that followed Vatican II, I found comfort and strength in the Most Holy Eucharist during my seminary days. The Benedictine Convent across the Lake from Mundelein Seminary had Perpetual Adoration, regular Eucharistic Processions, beautiful, reverent Masses, Divine Office and Benediction.

I have shared much with Anglicans since Ordination. I have many good Episcopalians friends. While there have been many serious strains in the relationship between Canterbury and Rome, I remain grateful for past memories of more hopeful prospects for unity. I am impressed with many courageous Anglo-Catholics who have come over to Rome — among them, Fr. James Parker, Fr. Stanley Klores, and Msgr. Graham Leonard (the former Anglican Bishop of London). I pray often for them and those who have remained Anglican.

As I am edified by the growing appeal of Eucharistic Adoration and Corpus Christi Processions, I am also happy to share the story of the “convert who never converted”. May I ask your prayers too for all our separated brothers and sisters who believe in the Real Presence. May they continue to inspire others, like me, to find their faith “through a glass darkly.” That discovery can change a marginal, generic Christian to a committed Catholic.

“Let us forever adore the most Holy Sacrament!”

– Fr. Luczak

Corpus Christi at the Episcopal Church of the Atonement, Chicago

The Meaning of Corpus Christi

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi is the solemn, public feast of the Eucharist, the sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ: on this day, the mystery instituted at the Last Supper and commemorated every year on Holy Thursday is manifested to all, in the midst of the fervor of faith and devotion of the Ecclesial Community.

Indeed, the Eucharist is the “treasure” of the Church, the precious heritage that her Lord has left to her. And the Church preserves it with the greatest care, celebrating it daily in holy Mass, adoring it in churches and chapels, administering it to the sick, and as viaticum to those who are on their last journey.

However, this treasure that is destined for the baptized does not exhaust its radius of action in the context of the Church: the Eucharist is the Lord Jesus who gives himself “for the life of the world” (Jn 6: 51). In every time and in every place, he wants to meet human beings and bring them the life of God. And this is not all. The Eucharist also has a cosmic property: the transformation of the bread and the wine into Christ’s Body and Blood is in fact the principle of the divinization of creation itself.

For this reason, the Feast of Corpus Christi is characterized particularly by the tradition of carrying the Most Holy Sacrament in procession, an act full of meaning. By carrying the Eucharist through the streets and squares, we desire to immerse the Bread come down from heaven in our daily lives. We want Jesus to walk where we walk, to live where we live. Our world, our existence, must become his temple.

On this feast day, the Christian Community proclaims that the Eucharist is its all, its very life, the source of life that triumphs over death. From communion with Christ in the Eucharist flows the charity that transforms our life and supports us all on our journey towards the heavenly Homeland. For this reason the liturgy makes us sing, “Good Shepherd, true read... You who know all things, who can do all things, who nourish us while on earth, lead your brethren to the heavenly banquet in the glory of your Saints.”

Mary is the “Woman of the Eucharist” as Pope John Paul II described her in his encyclical Ecclesia de Eucharistia. Let us pray to the Virgin that all Christians may deepen their faith in the Eucharistic mystery, to live in constant communion with Jesus and be his effective witness.

POPE BENEDICT XVI

To my Friends at St. Isaac Jogues,

I want to thank you for all you have done to make my Farewell Mass and Reception a memorable occasion.

Departure from places and people you have known for 48 years is never easy. But the Farewell Mass and Reception and your kind words and blessings will ease the sadness in my heart.

I am blessed to have the gift of serving you and having you as friends. I can honestly say that you are a loving and caring people.

I shall never forget you, and I want you to know that you are remembered in my daily prayers and masses. I ask you to please pray for me, too. Let’s keep in touch and keep up the good work.

God bless you always,
Fr. Bill

ADDRESS FOR FR. BILL BRINKER

THANK YOU

Many thanks to everyone who helped make Fr. Bill's Mass of Thanksgiving and Farewell Reception so special! We particularly thank Mary Ann Scanlon for her coordination of the reception, the Women's Club, the Men's Club, the 55+ Club, the Adult Choir, the Priests, Deacons, and Ministers of the Mass, and all who contributed to the day in any way! God bless you for your enthusiasm and goodness!

SPIRITUAL LIFE

SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMISSION MEETING

The Spiritual Life Commission will meet on Thursday, June 14th at 7:00 p.m. in the RE Office.

THE SPIRITUAL LIFE COMMISSION INVITES YOU

Parishioners are invited to a gathering on Sunday, June 24th, at 1:00 p.m. in the Holy Family Room, to brainstorm ideas for Parish Mission 2008 and to discuss with one another customs, traditions, prayers, and other matters of spiritual importance to you. Please mark your calendars and plan to attend! The meeting will last about an hour.

ALTAR FLOWERS CAN BE A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE

Now through November 25th, 2007, parishioners are invited to decorate the altar with flowers in honor or memory of a loved one. Your name and intention will be listed in the Bulletin.

The cost of the flower arrangement will be $40.00. The flowers are yours to take home after the 12:00 noon Mass on Sunday if you wish. Dates fill up quickly, so please book well in advance. Please call the Rectory at 847-967-1060 to arrange your date to make your remembrance special.

The flowers on the altar this weekend are:
From the Stanton Family
"In Thanksgiving of Elizabeth's 12th Birthday."

READINGS FOR
THE ELEVENTH SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME (green)
II Samuel 12: 7-10, 13
Psalm 32: 1-2, 5, 7, 11
Galatians 2: 16, 19-21
Luke 7: 36 - 8: 3

ABOUT NEXT WEEK'S READINGS

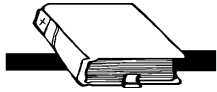

II SAMUEL: "Today's passage concludes the well-known story of David's sin of adultery with Bathsheba and also the sin of arranging the death of her husband Uriah. Nathan the prophet confronts David with these sins."

GALATIANS: "Today's reading is autobiographical. Paul defends his teaching, pointing out that he did not receive the Gospel secondhand but directly from the Risen Lord. Continuing our reading we will hear the central theme of this letter. Paul clearly states that it is not the Jewish law with its 613 precepts that produces salvation. Rather, it is Jesus Christ in whom we place our faith."

Peace be with you! If you like music, but are just too shy to let your voice be heard, fear not! You can be a hand bell ringer. Our Parish Hand Bell Choir practices on Tuesday evenings, from 6:00 until about 7:15, and, in general, rings about twice monthly at the Sunday 12:00 Mass. Musical knowledge is excellent, but if your skills are limited, we can teach you! Come on, now: you know you've always wanted to be involved in making music. You can do this! Please talk to Mr. Neal today. God bless you!

EDUCATION

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS

* Registration for the 2007-2008 Religious Education Program has begun! Families who were in the 2006-2007 RE Program are to turn in their registration forms by this Friday, June 15th. After June 15th families currently in the program may still register, based on grade-level availability, but a late fee of $25 per family will be assessed from June 16-August 1. After August 1st the late fee will be $35. If you are unsure if you are moving, we strongly encourage you to register your child to assure a place for them.

New families are welcome to register now! You will need to fill out a family form and a student form for each child entering the program. Please also provide a copy of each child's baptismal certificate. If they were in a Catholic School or a parish Religious Education Program, a letter from that parish stating their participation is requested.

Kindergarten RE Classes meet on Sundays, 10:30-11:30 a.m. Grades 1-Confirmation Year II meet on Mondays, 6:45-8:00 p.m. Those preparing for Sacraments must be in RE Classes (parish program or Catholic School) for at least two years prior to receiving a Sacrament.

Tuition for the 2007-2008 RE Program is $140 for one child; $250 for 2 children; $300 for three or more children. This is the parishioner rate — those registered here, who worship regularly, and who support the parish through monetary contributions (using church envelopes) or service. Non-parishioners' tuition rates are $215 for one child; $325 for two children; $375 for three or more children. This includes registered parishioners who do not use church envelopes or donate time in service to the parish. Sacrament fees are $45 – 1st Reconciliation and 1st Communion; $10 – Confirmation Year I; $25 – Confirmation Year II. Please note that no one is excluded because of an inability to pay. If you have a financial concern, please contact the Religious Education Office, 847/966-1180.

Please contact us as well to discuss possible options for children in special education and for older children who have not been in religious education and have not received sacraments. We will do our best to support your families' efforts to share the faith. Please call Dolores Stanton at the RE Office, 847/966-1180.

St. John Brebeuf Family Mass

Families from St. John Brebeuf recently gathered for another monthly Family Mass. The congregation was lead in song by the Children's Choir under the leadership of Carol Zalinski. Song leaders for the Mass included Heather Mall, Haley Beierwaltes, Taren VonderHeide, Katie Turbak, Nathan Lane, and Amanda Steckley. The Neuhengen and Schoenfeldt families shared the readings, and Justine Mae Garin and Catherine Cwieka read the petitions. The Gifts were presented by the Dela Cruz family. This recent Family Mass fell on Pastor Appreciation Day and our families were pleased to present well wishes to our own Father Tom, who is such a strong supporter of the families of St. John Brebeuf.

The 2007 National Geographic Geography Bee

SJB students from grades five through eight recently participated in the National Geographic Geography Bee. Seven preliminary rounds were held in each grade level. The top two students from each grade then advanced to the final rounds. We would like to congratulate the following students:

Grade 5

Chris Bargione
Marco Galasini

Grade 6

Alex Darville
Andrew Nitz

Grade 7

Brian McGinnis
Brittany Solinski

Grade 8

Citlaly Carbajal
Eric Carrabotta
Gina Orlandi
Peter Sliwka

The final round questions were very difficult and covered map skills as well as world geography. The competition was tough, but Andrew Nitz, sixth grade, emerged as the winner. Congratulations, Andrew, on a job well done.

Bingo and Religious Education?
What do they have in common?

Bingo has a long history at St. Isaac's. For decades we have hosted a weekly game in the Parish Hall ... and Bingo has been very good to us. In the past year Bingo generated over $40,000. These funds help to support both our parish religious education program and our students who attend school at St. John Brebeuf.

But we need YOUR help.

We need YOU to volunteer to help keep our Bingo Operation running.

We need concerned adults to volunteer as callers, floor workers, and pull tab sellers. We need volunteers to help staff our kitchen.

The work is not demanding. The commitment is not onerous. We need you to volunteer to work one or two Friday nights per year. Just one or two nights per year!

Won't you please help support our Religious Education Program?

For further information please contact Bob Kerls at the Parish Office, (847)967-1060.

HUMAN CONCERNS

Hunger Awareness Week Food Drive sponsored by the St. Vincent De Paul Society

We will hold a food drive after all masses TODAY! Our intention is to join our nation in celebrating "Hunger Awareness Week" which began June 5th. We are told that there are many Americans (especially children and the elderly) who go to sleep with an empty stomach in a land that has the capacity to feed everyone and still have food left over. We would like to have our parishioners join us in this food drive by being mindful of those that hunger. We see this food drive as a response to what Jesus taught us when he said "feed the hungry." We plan to donate our weekend food donations to the Catholic Charities food pantry. They are always in need of food supplies because they have many people asking for food.

Fr. Brinker

He broke the bread and took the cup of wine and gave them to his disciples. "Do this in memory of me." He took a towel and washed the feet of the disciples. Eucharist and service are inseparable in the Christian life. Eucharist is the gift of God's loving presence among us, and the manifestation of God's presence happens when we become Eucharist for others through service. When do I become Eucharist, breaking the bread of my life and giving it to others? Have you considered doing this as a religious man or woman? ADDING NAMES TO THE PARISH SICK LIST

It has always been the policy of St. Isaac Jogues to offer our parish community an opportunity to pray for those parishioners who are ill and in need of our prayers. We have tried to keep close track of these names for our Bulletin as they are made available to us.

However, now we face an important privacy issue, very much like the issues faced by hospitals, health institutions, and certainly by other parishes.

We cannot (by law) publicly let our parish community know the health status of any of our members without their permission.

We appreciate the fact that often friends, neighbors, and acquaintances wish to do something special for a person who is ill, and ask to place their name on the list to be prayed for. While their intentions are surely good, we simply can no longer accept names in this manner.

We will institute a new process regarding calling in names for the Bulletin list.

Names for the sick list placed in the Bulletin have to be called in by the person who is ill, or by a member of their family. At the time they call in the name, they will be asked whether they are the sick person him/ herself, or a member of their family, and if they give permission for the name to be placed on the list. They will be asked for the correct spelling of the sick person's name. If a family member, they will be required to give their name for our records.

Thank you for your patience regarding this new process. We wish to do all we can to offer our parish community the opportunity to offer prayers for those who are ill — but we must also be cognizant of the fact that all members of our congregation are entitled to their privacy in this regard.
